

PRAGUE
ST. VITUS CATHEDRAL

The Metropolitan Cathedral of Saints Vitus, Wenceslaus and Adalbert is an excellent example of Gothic architecture and is the biggest and most important church in the country. Located within Prague Castle and containing the tombs of many Bohemian kings and Holy Roman Emperors, the cathedral is under the ownership of the Czech government as part of the Prague Castle complex. The present-day Gothic Cathedral was founded on 21 November 1344, when the Prague bishopric was raised to an archbishopric.
